J. Dow. Esq.

Dear Sir:-

Yours of the 5th received also card of 22nd. I could not entertain your offer of $25.00 + coins as described. I do not know the gentlemen you refer to, so I would of had to introduce my self. So I never bothered further, upon receipt of your last letter I went to see the medal as to garantee, and I found out that the medal did not belong to the gentleman in question. so he could not garantee it. It was left in his hands to sell But as he did not sell it in 30 days he returned it. As it would not pay me to run about over it. I did not ask further about it when your proposition did not meet with my approval. I could not at present say weather it is sold for. I know of another man that is after it. when he knew it was for sale. I knew Mr. Barton and asked him if he was acquainted with war medals enough to garantee one if he seen it. and he said no hoping this is satisfactory I remain

Yours truly R. Jocelyn.
